

Job Description – Data Analyst Intern

Internship

Amsterdam, The Netherlands

32+ hours per week

Hybrid workplace

We are now looking for a Data Analyst Intern who wants to work in a start-up environment in football. This is a fantastic opportunity to join a fast-growing data consultancy company in sports while gaining valuable experience.

Company profile

FACTS is a start-up that provides data consultancy to Player agents, Players and Clubs worldwide. With our services we give answers to questions like: which clubs are interesting for a certain player, what value does a player represent and other data related football questions. In the first three years of its existence, FACTS acquired over 100 partners in most European countries.

Job purpose

As we are a football company, we have to be aware of all trends and developments that happen in the world of football. First and foremost in terms of data. It will be your responsibility to use the huge data pool that we have and extract interesting and useful insights from it. You will create structure in all data that we have, make internal and external dashboards and add value to our credibility as a forerunner in the use of data in football.

Tasks and Responsibilities:

- Give structure to the huge data pool we have
- Extract insightful points of interest from this data pool
- Create graphs and plots for our reports
- Create dashboards for internal and external use

Qualifications:

We are looking for someone that wants to get more experience in the football industry and wants to learn a lot along the way. So, are you studying and have some time free?

Do you have a gap year and looking for a kickstart of your career? Do you have time available in your curriculum for an internship? Then this would be the perfect opportunity for you.

- Experienced in Python (pandas, matplotlib) & SQL
- Write efficient and well-documented code
- Fluent in English
- Neat and structured work ethic
- Creative and curious
- Solution oriented, critical thinking

What we offer

- Fun, dedicated and young team
- Flexible working hours
- Room for your ideas and contributions
- A football environment to develop your personal skills and ambitions
